Working Group on Children and Armed Conflict

Conclusions on children and armed conflict in the Sudan

1. At its 32nd meeting, on 30 September 2011, the Working Group on Children and Armed Conflict examined the fourth report of the Secretary-General on children and armed conflict in the Sudan (S/2011/413), covering the period from January 2009 to February 2011, which was introduced by the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Children and Armed Conflict. The Permanent Representative of the Sudan to the United Nations participated in the subsequent discussion.
2. The members of the Working Group welcomed the report of the Secretary-General, submitted in accordance with Security Council resolution 1612 (2005), and the analysis and recommendations set out therein met with a favourable response.
3. They welcomed the efforts made by the Government to ensure the protection of children, including the adoption and implementation of the Child Act, and welcomed the establishment of a child protection unit within the armed forces.
4. They encouraged all parties who had signed action plans to fully implement all aspects of those plans and to release all children within the ranks of the armed forces and armed groups. They also urged those armed groups that had not yet signed an action plan to begin, as a matter of priority, a dialogue with the United Nations to develop such a plan and outline a framework for its implementation and for the release of all children from their ranks.
5. They noted the decrease in cases of abduction of children in Darfur, while expressing deep concern regarding the continuing killing and maiming of children.
6. They stressed that there was a need to strengthen the protection of children, including through explicit legal provisions.
7. They expressed deep concern regarding violations and abuses committed against children by all parties to the conflict in the Sudan.
8. They underlined that the recruitment and use of children in armed forces and armed groups remained a concern in Darfur, urging all parties to the conflict to ensure the prevention of recruitment and rerecruitment of children released from the armed forces and armed groups.
9. They urged the Government to ensure the effective long-term reintegration of children formerly associated with armed groups and also the prevention of child rerecruitment by both. They stressed that it was important for adequate resources to be allocated for the protection and reintegration of children, including by the donor community.

10. They urged all parties to ensure the protection of children in Southern Kordofan and Blue Nile States and in the Abyei Area.

11. They encouraged the Government to implement the relevant recommendations directed to it, as contained in the report of the Secretary-General.

12. They stressed that there was a need for two separate reports and conclusions for the Sudan and South Sudan following the independence of South Sudan in July 2011.

13. The Permanent Representative of the Sudan:

(a) Noted the report of the Secretary-General on children and armed conflict in the Sudan;

(b) Reaffirmed the Government's commitment to strengthening the protection of children and reiterated its serious desire to put an end to the conflict in Darfur, as demonstrated by its participation in the All Darfur Stakeholders Conference and its improved relations with Chad;

(c) Recalled positive developments, including, in particular, the steps that the Government had taken to apply the Child Act, which had been adopted early in 2010; noted that the Doha Document for Peace in Darfur was an important step towards ending the conflict; and called upon the Working Group to send a strong message to the remaining armed groups in Darfur to join the Doha Document;

(d) Emphasized that the Constitution of the Sudan forbade capital punishment for children below the age of 18 years and that the President of the Sudan had granted an amnesty to those children who had participated with the troops of the Justice and Equality Movement in their attack on the city of Omdurman;

(e) Reiterated the Government's desire to pursue its cooperation with the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Children and Armed Conflict and with all other relevant United Nations institutions;

(f) Noted that the report of the Secretary-General did not reflect some of the positive steps taken by the Government subsequent to the issuance of the report, such as its bringing its national legislation into compliance with its obligations under the Convention on the Rights of the Child and its two optional protocols in order to prohibit the recruitment of children;

(g) Indicated the importance of ensuring that the information contained in the report of the Secretary-General was based on factual and verified reports;

(h) Indicated that the violations documented in the report of the Secretary-General were general in nature and were insufficient for Government investigation, while assuring the Working Group of the Government's commitment to examining those violations;

(i) Called upon the Chair of the Working Group to send a strong message to armed groups committing violations against children;

(j) Expressed the hope that child protection in the Sudan could be further strengthened by drawing upon necessary assistance and capacity-building for different child protection institutions;

(k) Expressed the view of the Government that humanitarian access to Southern Kordofan and Blue Nile States had improved.

14. Further to the meeting, and subject to and consistent with applicable international law and relevant Security Council resolutions, including 1612 (2005), 1882 (2009), and 1998 (2011), the Working Group agreed to the direct action set out below.

Public statement issued by the Chair of the Working Group

15. The Working Group agreed to address a message to all the parties to the armed conflict in the Sudan mentioned in the report of the Secretary-General through a public statement by its Chair:

(a) Expressing deep concern regarding the continuing violations and abuses committed against children in the Sudan by all parties to the conflict, and urging the immediate implementation, as relevant to the Sudan following the independence of South Sudan, of the previous conclusions of the Working Group on Children and Armed Conflict in the Sudan (S/AC.51/2007/5, annex; S/AC.51/2008/7; and S/AC.51/2009/5);

(b) Expressing concern regarding continued reports of killing and maiming in contravention of international law, rape and sexual violence against children in conflict-affected areas, and urging national authorities to end impunity through rigorous and timely investigation and prosecution, to strengthen prevention efforts and to ensure that effective support is provided to the victims of violence;

(c) Expressing serious concern that, while the overall humanitarian situation in Darfur has not deteriorated, it has not improved, demanding that the Government of the Sudan, all militias, armed groups and all other stakeholders ensure the full, safe and unhindered access of humanitarian organizations and relief personnel and the delivery of humanitarian assistance to populations in need, and underscoring the importance of upholding the principles of humanity, neutrality, impartiality and independence in the provision of humanitarian assistance;

(d) Welcoming the memorandums of understanding reached separately by the Government of the Sudan and the Sudan People's Liberation Movement-North with the United Nations, the African Union and the League of Arab States to enable the urgent delivery of humanitarian assistance to affected civilian populations in Southern Kordofan and Blue Nile States in accordance with the tripartite plan proposed by the United Nations, the African Union and the League of Arab States, and calling upon the Government and the Sudan People's Liberation Movement-North to fully implement the terms of that plan in order to expedite the unhindered delivery of such assistance as rapidly as possible, in accordance with applicable international law, including applicable international humanitarian law, the guiding principles contained in the annex to General Assembly resolution 46/182 and the principles of neutrality, impartiality, humanity and independence for the provision of humanitarian assistance, and the safe, unhindered and immediate access of United Nations and other humanitarian personnel;

(e) Expressing deep concern regarding reported incidents of attacks on schools and hospitals by the parties to the conflict;

(f) Strongly urging all parties to the conflict to immediately halt the recruitment and use of children in violation of applicable international law and to release all children remaining within their ranks, as called for by the Security Council in its resolutions 1539 (2004) and 1612 (2005);

(g) Welcoming the efforts of the Government of the Sudan to ensure the protection of children, including by strengthening the legislative framework for the protection of children through the adoption of the Child Act in 2010;

(h) Calling upon the parties to the conflict in the Sudan listed in annex I to the report of the Secretary-General on children and armed conflict (S/2011/250), who have not yet developed and completed an action plan (the Justice and Equality Movement, the Sudan Liberation Army/Abdul Wahid, the Sudan Liberation Army/Historical Leadership and the Sudan Liberation Army/Unity) to engage in dialogue with the United Nations with a view to developing and completing an action plan that details steps to halt the violations for which they are listed and to comply with Security Council resolutions 1539 (2004), 1612 (2005), 1882 (2009) and 1998 (2011);

(i) Welcoming the signing and implementation of action plans by the Sudan Liberation Army/Free Will, the Sudan Liberation Army/Mother Wing (Abu Gasim) and the Justice and Equality Movement (Peace Wing), in addition to the progress made by those parties in releasing children and implementing the terms and conditions of the action plans, and urging those parties to continue to do so;

(j) Urging those parties, in addition to previous signatories to action plans (the Sudan Liberation Army/Minni Minawi), to ensure the full implementation of those plans and to provide full and unimpeded access for United Nations verification, as agreed upon therein;

(k) Encouraging the United Nations to continue its efforts to reach out to all other parties in the Sudan listed in annex I to the report of the Secretary-General on children and armed conflict in order to elicit commitments to action plans to end violations and abuses against children;

(l) Stressing the importance of finding a political solution to the conflict in Darfur in order to improve the current situation of children, and in that regard calling upon those parties to the conflict that have not yet done so to join the Doha Document for Peace in Darfur;

(m) Reminding all parties of their obligations under applicable law to cease the recruitment and use of children and to actively identify and immediately release those children already in their ranks.

Recommendations to the Security Council

16. The Working Group agreed to recommend that the President of the Security Council address the following letters:

Letter to the Government of the Sudan

(a) Welcoming its efforts to strengthen the legislative framework for the protection of children through the adoption of the Child Act and the Sudan Armed Forces Act, noting that those documents constitute significant milestones in the creation of a protective environment for children affected by armed conflict;

(b) Also welcoming the specific measures that it has taken to protect children, such as the establishment of a child protection unit within the armed forces;

(c) Expressing concern about references in the report of the Secretary-General on children and armed conflict in the Sudan (S/2011/413) regarding the presence of children in the armed forces and associated forces, and urging the Government to address that issue and prevent the recruitment and use of children according to its national legislation and international obligations;

(d) Calling upon it to continue to uphold its commitment to the dissemination, implementation and enforcement of child protection legislation, including at all administrative levels, and to prevent the recruitment and use of children in line with its international obligations following its ratification of the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child on the involvement of children in armed conflict, while considering the criminalization of such recruitment in its penal code;

(e) Also calling upon the Government to ensure that sufficient resources are dedicated to mainstreaming child protection throughout its security forces;

(f) Welcoming the continued dialogue between the United Nations and the armed forces on the development of a specific, time-bound action plan, in addition to the declared intention of the Government to sign an action plan that would apply to the armed forces and affiliated armed groups, and calling upon the Government to sign and implement such an action plan to end the recruitment and use of children, in coordination with the United Nations and in line with Security Council resolution 1612 (2005);

(g) Calling upon it to make every effort to ensure that the relevant provisions of national law, international human rights law and international humanitarian law, in particular with regard to the protection of children, are upheld by its security forces;

(h) Recalling that it has abolished capital punishment for children below the age of 18 years, and calling upon it to strictly implement its national laws and its international obligations in this regard;

(i) Calling upon it to end impunity through rigorous and timely investigations and prosecution of crimes committed against children, including sexual violence, and to allocate additional resources to strengthen prevention efforts and provide appropriate responses at all administrative levels;

(j) Expressing serious concern that, while the overall humanitarian situation in Darfur has not deteriorated, it has not improved, demanding that the Government, all militias, armed groups and all other stakeholders ensure the full, safe and unhindered access of humanitarian organizations and relief personnel and the delivery of humanitarian assistance to populations in need, and underscoring the importance of upholding the principles of humanity, neutrality, impartiality and independence in the provision of humanitarian assistance;

(k) Welcoming the memorandums of understanding reached separately by the Government of the Sudan and the Sudan People's Liberation Movement-North with the United Nations, the African Union and the League of Arab States to enable the urgent delivery of humanitarian assistance to affected civilian populations in Southern Kordofan and Blue Nile States in accordance with the tripartite plan proposed by the United Nations, the African Union and the League of Arab States, and calling upon the Government and the Sudan People's Liberation Movement-North to fully implement the terms of that plan in order to expedite the unhindered delivery of such assistance as rapidly as possible, in accordance with applicable international law, including applicable international humanitarian law, the guiding principles contained in the annex to General Assembly resolution 46/182 and the principles of neutrality, impartiality, humanity and independence for the provision of humanitarian assistance, and the safe, unhindered and immediate access of United Nations and other humanitarian personnel;

(l) Urging it to make every effort to ensure the protection of schools and/or hospitals, and protected persons in relation thereto, against attacks or threats of attacks.

Letter to the Secretary-General

(a) Requesting him to ensure, as a matter of priority, the strengthening of the monitoring and reporting mechanism on children and armed conflict in the Sudan with the participation of and in cooperation with the Government and relevant United Nations and civil society actors, so as to provide the timely, objective, accurate and reliable information necessary to ensure the fulfilment of reporting obligations to the Security Council, and requesting that the United Nations Interim Security Force for Abyei ensure the security and freedom of movement of United Nations child protection personnel;

(b) Requesting him to ensure that the African Union-United Nations Hybrid Operation in Darfur and the United Nations country team, consistent with their respective mandates, collaborate with the Government and other parties to the conflict to develop and implement action plans to halt the recruitment and use of children in armed conflict in the Sudan;

(c) Encouraging him to strengthen, in close consultation with the African Union, child protection capacity in the African Union-United Nations Hybrid Operation in Darfur;

(d) Requesting him to submit two separate reports for the Sudan and South Sudan following the independence of South Sudan in July 2011.

Direct action by the Working Group

17. The Working Group also agreed that letters should be addressed from the Chair:

To the World Bank and donors

(a) Noting that the risk of rerecruitment of children who have been separated from armed forces or groups can be addressed only through the provision of support for their long-term reintegration;

(b) Appealing to donors working alongside the United Nations system to support efforts by the Government to reintegrate former child soldiers.
