

tool 58 Practice Standards in Children's Participation (Save the Children Alliance)

The Practice Standards in Children's Participation were developed by Save the Children following a wide consultation with staff, partners and children in various countries. It provides operational guidance on how to promote child participation in a safe, ethical and meaningful way.

Click here to download the document.

related tools

 tool 59 – Case study 'Child-led advocacy in Colombia'